

STAT

Illegible
ILLEGIB

March 8, 1951

Dear Bill:

Sorry to have missed you in Nassau where I was for a few days and expect to be again the end of March and throughout April.

A friend of mine was very sorry he missed you there, since he wanted to talk to you. I believe you know him -- he is

STAT

STAT

[redacted] was in the Air Force Intelligence during the war and stayed in the Reserves. Now he might be going back into the service. In other words, I think he is available and is very anxious to do something useful. I imagine you will hear from him one of these days.

STAT

If you ever want to reach me, I am leaving instructions with [redacted] that anything from Washington should be forwarded to me immediately. Otherwise, in [redacted] mail can

STAT

STA

With all best wishes to you and your bride,

Sincerely yours,

[redacted]

STAT

T